

NETWORK of NEIGHBORS RESPONDING to VIOLENCE

Trauma Responder Training

Monday, June 13th, 1pm- 5pm*
Tuesday, June 14th, 8:30am- 5pm
Wednesday, June 15th, 8:30am- 5pm
*Registration & Lunch from 12:30pm-1pm

Trainer: Dr. Robert Macy
International Trauma Center

This 2.5-day training will equip attendees to support individuals and communities after incidents of violence. The two trainings included are:

- Psychological First Aid—an evidence-informed approach for assisting children, adolescents, adults, and families in the aftermath of disaster and terrorism
- Post-Traumatic Stress Management—a community-based acute trauma response intervention to be utilized in the wake of community violence

Trauma Responders who attend the full training will be equipped to offer group supports, which

- Foster the natural, human tendency to group together, seeking solace and safety after traumatic incidents
- Reduce acute traumatic stress common among survivors
- Refer to and access community based resources as needed
