

General Registries

Registries are repositories designed to provide the public with reliable information on interventions. Registries review and rate interventions based on criteria that allow the general public to understand the effectiveness of the practice on a number of different domains/categories.

Evidence-Based Practices Web Guide

- Who developed it: Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA)
- What you will find here: Registry

National Registry of Evidence-Based Programs and Practices \(NREPP\)

- Who developed it: Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA)
- What you will find here: Registry

Research-Supported Psychological Treatments

- Who developed it: Society of Clinical Psychology, American Psychological Association
- What you will find here: Registry

Social Programs that Work

- Who developed it: Coalition for Evidence-based Policy/Laura and John Arnold Foundation (LJAF), Evidence-Based Policy initiative
- What you will find here: Registry