

Notification of Selected Applicants
September 13, 2017

Type of Training

Ecosystemic Structural Family Therapy (ESFT) Training for children's services providers in community-based levels of care.

Applicants Selected for the Training

- Bethanna
- CCTC
- CFAR
- Elwyn
- SPIN

Reasons for Selection for the Training

After consideration of appropriate factors, including responsiveness and responsibilities of all Applicants, the applicant selection is made in the best interest of Community Behavioral Health (CBH). The following factors were the most important in the selection process:

- Meets prequalification requirements
- Prior experience of Applicant
- Ability or capacity to meet particular requirements of training and needs of CBH and those served by CBH