

Advancing Positive Outcomes for Children and Families

The PA Association for Infant Mental Health is the organizer of the Breakfast Networking Meeting with support from BHTEN and CBH.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION:

This training will provide an overview of the child welfare system in Philadelphia so that professionals who are working with families that might be involved in the system have a better understanding of how to communicate with other professionals and collaborate to help improve outcomes for children and families.

PRESENTERS:

Margie Gualtieri, MSW, Esq., Managing Attorney, Support Center for Child Advocates; areas of expertise: Family Law, Dependency Law, Representing Children

Devon Ferguson, LSW, Director of Social Work, Support Center for Child Advocates; areas of expertise: Family Law, Dependency Law, Representing Children

Ron Ayler, MSW, Social Worker, Family Advocacy Unit, Community Legal Services; area of expertise: Family Law, Dependency Law, Representing Parents

PROGRAM LEARNING OBJECTIVES At the end of this session participants will be able to:

- Discuss the child welfare system in Philadelphia and how to advocate for children and families involved in the system.
- Explain the role of child advocates and the benefits of collaboration to serve families.
- Identify strategies for interventions in their day-to-day work.
