

The Healing Space

Quick Staff Hosting Guide

At DBHIDS, Organizational Development conducts research, analyzes data, monitors current trends impacting behavioral health, and promotes employee collaboration by creating accessible opportunities for staff to address internal needs, close outcome gaps, and amplify their voices.

Purpose

DBHIDS' flagship "The Healing Space" offers employees a safe and brave organic space to come together for support and strength during challenging times.

Submission Requirements

Please submit the topic title and a one-sentence description.

Note: Your submission(s) will be added to the existing calendar in the order received on a first-come, first-served basis. Efforts will be made to align your topic with a specific recognition period or month; however, placement cannot be guaranteed due to the existing announcement lineup and scheduled calendar commitments.

Example email:

The Healing Space

Thursday, Feb. 5, from noon to 1 p.m.

Click to Join Meeting

DBHIDS cares about the well-being of its staff and invites all staff to attend "The Healing Space" on Thursday, Feb. 5, from noon to 1 p.m. to discuss anxieties and concerns about our changing environment. The Commissioner's Office organized this brave, virtual, employee wellness-focused safe space to meet one another where we are on our healing journeys and lean on one another for support and strength during difficult times.

Click here to submit content for Lunch & Learn or one of the following virtual employee educational platforms:

ChatUP: A one-hour safe space that promotes staff connection and open conversation.

Lunch & Learn Series: A 1.5-hour presentation featuring a variety of engaging topics.

SkillUP: A 20-minute pre-recorded learning segment.

Did You Know?: A weekly workforce educational communication.

For questions, email Hakeem Johnson, Organizational Development Operations Manager at Hakeem.Johnson@phila.gov.